“While playing for Thór Akureyri, 2018-2019 Champions of the Icelandic first division, Larry Thomas led the team in every statistical category and was selected League Player of the Year. Larry led the team in points, assists, and rebounds. He is a tremendous rebounder for a guard, averaging 10 rpg. Larry has unlimited range on his shot, shooting 48% from deep on seven attempts per game. Larry can really score the ball and has good touch around the basket, but his main ability as a player is to distribute the ball and get his teammates involved, having 5.7 assists per game while playing for Thor-Akureyri . On the defensive end, Larry can be a pest for the other team. He will pressure the ball full court and if we needed a stop, he wanted to guard the other team’s best player. He is a Patrick Beverly type of a defender. Larry is surprisingly strong for a guard so he can easily switch on the pick and roll and front bigger players. Larry is a really tough player that will play through any minor injury and he has a great work ethic. He was a really good teammate and had a great impact on the club and also helped the younger players develop.” - Coach Lárus Jonsson (Thor-Akureyri)
